

24171201 | Electric tackler

Powerful electric staple gun ideal for demanding professional use and precise control. With robust components and durable build quality. The R214 offers a long lifespan, even with heavy use. Ideally suited for attaching thin wood, cardboard, plastic film or paper requires some extra traction. Removable nose piece makes it possible to quickly dissolve solid runners, while the 3.5-meter long cable increases the accessibility and efficiency.
